CanJam Europe – Meet of Headphone Enthusiasts

Berlin, September 13th 2016

On September 24th and 25th, Europe's largest headphone show CanJam Europe is returning to Essen, Germany. In addition to commercial exhibitors and the free lecture track, the headphone enthusiast community plays a central role at the event. This year, the community will have its own, dedicated community tables right on the show floor to present private headphone setups and to chat with fellow enthusiasts.

Interested parties can register for participation at the Community Lounge via buying a Community ticket. Enthusiasts participating on short notice can register at the show desks, minimum requirement is a personal headphone stack consisting of at least three components to receive the exclusive community wrist bands.

Further information and tickets are available at www.canjam-europe.com/en/community-2

CanJam Europe visitors vote for their Best of Show awards

Visitors of CanJam Europe are once again invited to vote for the highlight products of the show in six different categories. Prizes with a total value of more than EUR 4,000 are raffled off amongst participants.
